CALLED THE ANCHOR WATCH

TO RESCUE A LADY'S HAT

N EXCITING INCIDENT occurred in connection with the Enfled States

One of the women passengers aboard the Solace was returning from a visit un town in company with her escort when the strong prevailing wind caught her hat from her head and sent it hurrying along the wharf towards the waters of the harbor. The gallant and courageous man immediately started in hot pursuit and it looked at first as if he was going to catch the runaway headgear before it took a dive in the briny. But he slipped, stumbled and went headlong on the wharf,

He picked himself up, however, and cortinued the chase until the hat went over the edge of the wharf and he had to desist or go over into the water also.

and the news of the loss was made known to those on board. The anchor watch was called, a boat was secured and the lady's escort, together with a member of the anchor watch, put out in a leaky little boat, which had been found lying under the wharf, armed with only one oar, to search for the hat. The lady, who was trying to bear the loss bravely, stood in the stern of the Solace and directed oar, was blown farther and farther out until it was almost as far out as the lighttle wetting but it was no easy task. As much as fifteen minutes were spent in working the frail craft to the steamship. When at last the men in the little boat drew near to the stern of the Solace, however, and it was seen that the gallant men had rescued the hat, a great cheer went up from those on deck, and the bare-

SALISBURY IS CONDEMNED

Hope, However, That He Himself Will Actually Control the Foreign Office.

LONDON, Nov. 1 .- If the Daily Telegraph's announcement had been a mere feeler to ascertain the temper of the public toward Lord Lansdowne's appointment, he would certainly never become Minister of Foreign Affairs; but, although the appointment to the Secretaryship has not yet been officially confirmed, it is accepted on all sides as a settled thing. The Standard, which says it has learned that Lord Selborne, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, and William St. John Brodrick, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, will enter the Cabinet, and that Charles Thompson Ritchie, president of the Board of Trade, will be given a higher post, says: "The appointment of the Marquis of Lansdowne to be her majesty's principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs is an almost inconceiv-Haw. The Daily Mail, which professes to be unable to believe that such an appointment is possible, says: "If Lord Lansdowne is appointed Foreign Secretary and some other gentleman of

The Daily Chronicle says: "We may well ask whether the country would have voted quite so 'khaki' had it known of this appointment before-

The Times to a large extent takes he view of the Liberal organs, namely, that Lord Salisbury will now find time to be the real Premier and to exercise greater control over the whole Cabinet, instead of a mere nominal control. It believes the report of Lord Lansdowne's appointment correct, and defends him against newspaper attacks, saying: "These critics would find it hard to indicate whom they consider better fitted for the post."

CABINET A FAMILY AFFAIR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.-A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from London says: The presidency of the Board of Trade, left vacant by the transfer of FINE fat turkeys. Apply to George Mr. Ritchie to the Home Office, has not yet been announced. The appointment of Mr. Ritchie as home secretary affords new hope to the friends of Mrs. Maybrick, who say Sir Matthew White-Ridley, the retiring home secretary, was prejudiced. Ritchie is a practical business man, unbound by red tape or old prejudices and an appeal will be made to him soon

The new Cabinet is largely a family affair. Balfour, who continues as first Lord of the Treasury and leader in the House of Commons and Gerald Balfour, who, while not in the Cabinet is Chief From San Francisco, P. M. S. S. Gaelic, Secretary for Ireland, are Salisbury's nephews, while Lord Selborne, the new First Lord of the Admiralty, is Salisbury's son-in-law. Lansdowne, who was such a failure as Secretary of State for War, is made Foreign Minister because he is the leader of aristocratic society and Salisbury's friend. From Kaual, per stmr. James Makee, He will simply relieve the Premier of November 3.—W. F.
